STATE Pennsylvania

Pennsylvania's medically needy income level (MNIL) for one person is related to the standard for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payment for a single person (including the State Supplement) rounded to the nearest dollar. Thus, the MNIL does meet the "reasonableness" standard at 42 CFR $435.812(b)(1).

The MNIL for one person also meets the Federal Financial Participation requirements at 42 CFR $435.1007(a)(2) because it is 133 1/3% of an amount reasonably related to our highest Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) payment for a family of two.

The MNIL for one person is 96% of the MNIL for a household of two persons. The AFDC payment for one person is based on the needs of a child who is not responsible for shelter expenses and is not living alone. The MNIL for one person is based on the needs of an adult who is living alone, who is responsible for housing expenses, and does not benefit from the economics of scale applicable to households. The amount used for the needs of one adult is reasonably related (96%) to the needs of an adult living with one child.
